President Willis reminded members that the yearly dues are currently set at $300. We will begin collecting dues at the next meeting. Members are encouraged to bring the exact amount to make it easier for the Treasurer.

She also stated that there will be two upcoming expenses; the Guild will be pay towards Jan Alswager's premium Zoom account so that we are able to host Zoom meetings for members who are out-of-town. The Guild is also exploring options for a new microphone and speaker system.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Publicity: Connie Hayes asked that Board Members and others stay after the meeting so that she can take updated photos of the members. Connie is also contacting Auroa Michelle who replaced Hector, our liaison to the village, who will help Justine and her committee determine the projects needed by the village of Ajijic.

Membership: DiAnne Maczko reported we have currently 34 active members. She asked that members inform her if anyone needs a new name tag. If a current member is interested in sponsoring a new member, they can find the form on the website, fill it out and give it to DiAnne.

Programs: Bonnie Newman arranged for Cathy Sheehan to present today. She is currently working on setting up the programs for the remainder of the year.

Hospitality:

The meeting today was hosted by Mary Wolf. There were no refreshments due to COVID.

Community Project: Justine is away but will be getting the committee together to suggest some projects for the community.

Webmaster: Linda Rudisell-Hines was not able to attend. President Willis asked that members look at their contact information on the website and give updates to Linda. Members were encouraged to share the home and cell phone numbers so that they can be contacted more easily by phone.

Sunshine: Vickie Christensen reported she and Joyce McNiven will get together to coordinate how they will work as a team. No Sunshine items to report.

Floral Design Show: Cathy Sheehan stated that the Floral Show will be held in November and would like members' ideas about venues. The theme will be simple and basic to make it easier for members to come up with a design as we ease back into normal activities.

Christmas Luncheon: Beth Fluke reported that the Christmas party will be December 8 and likely be held at Di' Shanti restaurant.

Old Business: The week day for the general meeting was changed back to Thursdays. The time was changed slightly to accommodate some members schedules. The Social Hour will now begin at 10:30 a.m. and the meeting will start at 11:00 a.m. Future meetings will not require mandatory masks however members are encouraged to use them if they feel more comfortable.

We will resume refreshments at the meetings and the lunch at a restaurant following the meetings. A request was made that we consider restaurants with outdoor spaces. We will remain flexible regarding the meetings and make whatever changes are necessary to ensure members safety.

New Business: Mary Wolf read a letter from Mary Bragg that gave an update on her housing and location.

It was mentioned that creating a What's App group for the members should be a good idea so that we could more easily communicate on a casual basis.

PROGRAM:

Cathy Sheehan presented the basics of flower arranging. She outlined steps from beginning the design process to completing the arrangement. She presented the members with a handout. The handout will be placed on the website.

There being no more business to discuss, the meeting was adjourned at 11:38 a.m. (MSC)
